

19th February 2010

E A SHAW STRENGTHENS LEASE ADVISORY TEAM WITH NEIL DAVIES APPOINTMENT

E A Shaw, the specialist Midtown, South Bank, Covent Garden and Soho commercial property adviser, has appointed Neil Davies to the position of salaried partner.

Neil will be joining the firm's retail lease advisory and asset management division and at the same time reinstating their agency offer. Clients that Neil will be working with include Shaftesbury PLC, which is advised by E A Shaw on its Carnaby and Seven Dials estates in central London.

Neil arrives from Keenan & CO and has more than 15 years experience with the retail property sector. Clients he has previously worked with include Legal & General, Hermes and Pret a Manger.

Charlie Killen, partner in charge of commercial agency at E A Shaw, comments: "Neil has an excellent reputation within the retail property market and his arrival as a salaried partner underlines the ambitions of the firm. His appointment will strengthen our senior management team and help E A Shaw's retail division maintain excellent levels of service and advice."

Neil can be contacted on 020 7420 3071 or nvd@eashaw.com, or at E A Shaw's Covent Garden office:

E A Shaw
9 / 12 Bow Street
Covent Garden
London
WC2E 7AB

- ends -

For further information, please contact:

Andy Jefford, TTA Group

Tel: 020 7886 0215

Email: ajefford@ttagroup.co.uk

Notes to editors

Established in 1899, E A Shaw is a niche central London property advisor, with an emphasis on Covent Garden, Soho, Midtown and Southbank, covering commercial agency, residential, investment, professional, management, project management and building consultancy.

E A Shaw was awarded the title of Estates Gazette Property Adviser of the Year in 2007 & 2008 for the activities of their commercial division. The residential team has been awarded the 4* award for Best London Estate Agency at the Daily Mail UK Property Awards. www.eashaw.com